The petitioner seeks grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.156, dated 16.9.2015, registered under Section 420 of the IPC, at Police Station Morinda, District Rupnagar.

Counsel for the petitioner has argued that the dispute is between Tarlochan Singh and the complainant with regard to some plot which Tarlochan Singh sold to the complainant which, as per the complainant, does not meet the requirement as mentioned in the agreement to sell in so much as in the agreement it was mentioned that the seller would arrange to get the land and the passage demarcated but he could not get the passage demarcated.

Counsel for the complainant, however, states that the petitioner was a party to the entire conspiracy, but he as well as learned Addl. AG Punjab have accepted the fact that the petitioner is not the owner of the land in dispute.

In this view of the matter, I do not deem it appropriate to deny the concession of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Consequently, the petitioner is directed to appear before the Investigating Officer on 19.10.2015 or on any other day on which the Investigating Officer requires his presence, and in the event of his arrest, the petitioner shall be released on anticipatory bail by the Investigating Officer to his satisfaction subject to the compliance of the provisions as contained in Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.

The petition stands disposed of.
