duly incorporated by the Investigating Officer in his proceedings undertaken on 26.04.2015 and has also placed on record the original of the same and on tallying the same learned counsel for the complainant could not differentiate over the number of articles though the complainant who is present in Court has sought to rake up an issue that they were different articles and not the one which were given to her by her parents regarding which she could not bring to the notice of this Court any tangible evidence.
