Date of Decision: October 12, 2015.

Manpreet Singh @ Manna

.....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE SABINA

Present: Mr. S.S. Grewal, Advocate for the petitioner.

SABINA, J.

Petitioner has filed this petition under Section 438 of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 seeking anticipatory bail in FIR No.58 dated 22.07.2015, under Sections 323, 324, 341, 506, 148, 149 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 ('IPC' for short), registered at Police Station Bholath, District Kaurthala.

Heard.

As per the prosecution case, petitioner was armed with a datar at the time of occurrence. Petitioner and his co-accused inflicted injuries on the person of Baldev Singh. Offence under Section 307 IPC was added at a later stage as injury on the forehead attributed to accused Kamaljit Singh @ Chintu and injury on the head attributed to accused Satnam Singh @ Sata were declared dangerous to life. Baldev Singh had suffered eight injuries. Although, so far as the petitioner is concerned, he is attributed datar blow on the left elbow of Baldev Singh but the fact remains that two injuries on the person of Baldev Singh have been declared dangerous to life. Petitioner and his co-accused had attacked the complainant armed with weapons.

Keeping in view the seriousness of allegations levelled against the petitioner, no ground for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, is made out.

Dismissed.
