Versus

State of Punjab

..... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI

Present: Mr. Parvez Akhtar, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Ms. Harpreet Kaur Athwal, DAG, Punjab.

Mr. P.S. Ahluwalia, Advocate, for the complainant.

M.M.S. BEDI, J (ORAL)

Petitioner, as a member of unlawful assembly, had allegedly attacked complainant Paramjit Singh and his family members by trespassing in his house. Fire arm injuries have been received by the relatives of the complainant.

Learned counsel for the complainant has intervened to oppose application for regular bail contending that the petitioner, as a member of unlawful assembly, would be equally liable for the act of his co-accused Balbir Singh who has used firearm and caused injuries to the complainant and other relatives.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has not been attributed any injury thought he was a member of unlawful assembly and was present on the spot with stick as per the allegations.

Taking into consideration the facts that the challan has been presented and the petitioner has been in custody w.e.f. 16.07.2015, he can be granted the concession of bail.

Petition is allowed. Petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court subject to the condition that he will not commit similar offence of which he is accused of during pendency of the trial. In case of any such eventuality, it will be open to the prosecution agency or the complainant to approach this Court for cancellation of the bail.
