

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

Criminal Misc.No.M-35917 of 2015 (O&M)

Date of decision: 19th October, 2015

Harjinder Singh

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE INDERJIT SINGH

Present: Mr. Sandeep Arora, Advocate, for the petitioner.

INDERJIT SINGH, J.

Petitioner has preferred the second petition under Section 438 Cr.P.C., seeking anticipatory bail in case FIR No.124 dated 14.10.2012, registered at Police Station Mehatpur, District Jalandhar, under Sections 324, 379, 427, 34 IPC.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and have gone through the record.

From the record, this Court finds that firstly the petitioner was declared proclaimed offender on 28.01.2015 which means that he is absconding from the process of law and he has not joined the investigation since the registration of the FIR. Secondly, his first application for anticipatory bail has already been dismissed on merit by this Court. Learned counsel for the petitioner contended that a compromise has already been effected between the parties and petition for quashing the said FIR has been filed. As the petitioner is absconding; he has not appeared and joined the investigation for such a long period; he has been declared proclaimed offender and his bail application has already been dismissed on merit, therefore, no ground to grant the benefit of anticipatory bail to him is made out.

Accordingly, the instant petition stands dismissed.
