1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
2. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

Prayer in the present petition filed under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. is for quashing orders dated 15.11.2013 passed by the Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Chandigarh and dated 09.09.2015 passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Chandigarh granting interim maintenance of Rs.8000/- p.m. to the respondent-wife and her 9 years old child.

Learned counsel has argued that the petitioner has lost his business and is not earning more than Rs.5000/- per month while the respondent is earning handsome amount.

In my opinion, these facts have been considered by the Courts below. In any case, the matter relates to interim maintenance and the amount of Rs.8000/- p.m. for a woman and her school going child can hardly be termed to be excessive in today's time.

Petition is dismissed.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending Criminal Misc. Application, if any, also stands disposed of.
