... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr. R.S. Bains, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. G.S. Lalli, Advocate for respondent No.1.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Petitioners, by way of instant application under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, seek only limited directions to the learned Executing Court for early decision of the execution application, of the petitioners.

Notice of motion was issued.

Learned counsel for respondent No.1 appears and fairly states that let the appropriate directions be issued to the learned Executing Court for early decision of the execution application. However, he seeks liberty to bring all the relevant facts to the notice of the learned Executing Court, including the fact that as to how much amount was paid by respondent No.1 towards the amount of maintenance and the attending circumstances faced by him.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and after careful perusal of the record of the case, present petition is disposed of, with a direction to the learned Executing Court to decide the execution application of the petitioners at an early date, by passing an appropriate order thereon, strictly in accordance with law. It is also directed that the respondent-husband shall be at liberty to bring all the relevant facts to the notice of the learned Executing Court. The learned Executing Court shall make every endeavour to decide the pending execution application of the petitioners, without any further loss of time.

With the abovesaid observations made and directions issued, present petition stands disposed of.
