Versus

State of Haryana

.....Respondent

CORAM: HONBLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr. Aman Bansal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Sushill Gautam, DAG, Haryana.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK J. (ORAL)

Petitioner seeks bail pending trial in FIR No.211 dated 02.08.2014 under Sections 302, 304-B, 120-B read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code ('IPC' for short), registered at Police Station Chandimandir.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that no specific role has been attributed to the petitioner, who is brother-in-law of the deceased. He further submits that the trial will take long time and in these circumstances, the petitioner deserves concession of bail pending trial.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the State submits that all the PWs have been examined except cross-examination of investigating officer and the next date of hearing before the trial Court is on 20.03.2015. He further submits that since the trial is near conclusion, petitioner is not entitled for bail pending trial, at this stage.

Notice of motion was issued.

Having heard, the learned counsel for the parties at considerable length and after careful perusal of the record of the case, petitioner has not been found entitled for bail pending trial, at this stage. It is so said because the prosecution evidence has already been led and the case is now listed for 20.03.2015 and the trial is likely to be concluded in the near future.

In view of the above, no case for grant of bail to the petitioner, at this stage, is made out.

Dismissed.
