- 1. Whether reporters of local newspapers may be allowed to see the judgment ? (Yes/No)
- 2. To be referred to reporters or not ? (Yes/No)
- 3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest ? (Yes/No)

Present:- Mr. J.S. Hooda, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Vikas Malik, D.A.G., Haryana
for the respondent-State.

DAYA CHAUDHARY, J. (ORAL)

This petition has been filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.194 dated 15.03.2015 registered under Sections 398/401 IPC and Section 25 of the Arms Act at Police Station Camp Palwal, District Palwal.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that as per allegations in the FIR, three boys were standing on the road with intent to loot the passersby. They were also having illegal weapons. Learned counsel also submits that three boys have been shown to have run away in the presence of police officials, who were in official vehicle. The FIR was registered on the basis of secret information. Neither any specific time has been mentioned in the FIR nor it has been mentioned therein that the complainant overheard any planning or conversation between the accused persons. Nothing is to be recovered from the petitioner as he was arrested from the spot. The petitioner is in custody since 15.03.2015. Out of total 11 witnesses, only one witness has been examined and the trial may take long time to conclude.

Learned counsel for the respondent-State has not disputed the custody period and other submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner but opposes grant of bail to the petitioner on the ground that other cases of similar nature are pending against him.

In view of the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner and keeping in view the allegations; the custody period and also the fact that out of total 11 witnesses, only one witness has been examined and trial may take long time to conclude and no useful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner in custody, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is directed to be released on regular bail on his furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court.
