Naresh Kumar Sanghi, J.(Oral)

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that during the pendency of the present petition, the better sense has prevailed and both the factions have resolved their dispute and effected a compromise. He further submits that the alleged occurrence had taken place in the year 2008. The petitioner had gone out of India in the year 2009. Thereafter, the summoning order was passed in the year 2012, therefore, the petitioner was not aware of the impugned summoning order. At his back, he was declared proclaimed offender. He further submits that the co-accused of the petitioner have been discharged by the learned Area Judicial Magistrate. He further submits that the petitioner may be granted liberty to appear before the learned

Area Judicial Magistrate and seek bail in accordance with law.

Learned counsel for the respondent has very fairly submitted that during the pendency of the present petition, the better sense has prevailed and both the factions have resolved their dispute and effected a compromise. He has no objection if the petitioner is permitted to withdraw the present petition and is further directed to appear before the learned trial Court and seek bail.

Dismissed as withdrawn.

In case the petitioner appears before the learned trial Court within one month from the date of passing of this order, he shall be admitted to bail on furnishing bail bonds to its satisfaction.
