CRM No.35632 of 2015
CRM No.35825 of 2015

For the reasons set out in the application, same are allowed as prayed for and accompanying documents Annexures P-18 & R-19 are allowed to be taken on record.

Crl. Misc. No.M- 39224 of 2014

The instant petition is for quashing the complaint case no.226-I titled as Vinod Tayal Vs. Darshan Singh etc. and the summoning order dated 28.04.2014, passed by JMJC, Hisar.

During the pendency of the present petition, it is claimed that the parties have entered into compromise with the intervention of respectable persons. Affidavits of parties (Annexures P-18 & Annexure R-19), reiterating the factum of compromise, have been placed on record.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has urged that now good sense had prevailed to both the parties and they have decided to settle the dispute by entering into a compromise. Affidavits of complainant Vinod Tayal as well as petitioners Harpal Singh & Jaskaran Singh have been filed, wherein the factum of the parties having entered into compromise is reiterated. It is prayed that in view of the compromise, the above said complaint case and further proceedings may be quashed.

Learned counsel appearing for the complainant states that the complainant has no objection if the complaint is quashed.

In the instant case, the parties have put an end to their grievance and have settled the dispute and attempt has been made to promote peace and harmony amongst themselves. Since the parties have amicably settled their dispute, there is no legal impediment in granting permission to them to compound the offence. In view of the compromise and the principles laid down by the Full Bench judgment of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others Vs. State of Punjab and another, 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, approved by Hon'ble Apex Court in Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and others (2012) 10 SCC 303, the instant petition is allowed and the aforesaid complaint and all consequent proceedings conducted on the basis thereof are quashed.

Needless to say that parties shall remain bound by the terms of compromise and their statements made in the Court below.
