2. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This petition has been filed under Section 438 Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.144 dated 01.08.2015, registered under Sections 326, 324, 458, 506, 34 IPC, at Police Station City Sunam, District Sangrur.

On the last date the following contention was noticed:-

“Learned counsel has argued that actually the complainant is an accused in the murder of the sister of the petitioner and this whole incident has been engineered to create pressure.”

Learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that actually the wife of the complainant is the accused and prays that this fact may be deemed to have been incorporated in the last order.

Learned Deputy Advocate General has accepted this fact. Therefore, the said prayer is accepted.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has further argued that apart from the merits of the case the serious injuries were attributed to one Piara Singh who was arrested and only simple injuries were attributed to the petitioner.

On instructions from H.C. Beant Singh learned Deputy Advocate General has accepted these factual assertions.

In view of the facts and circumstances, without going into the merits of the case, I do not deem it appropriate to deny the concession of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Resultantly, the petition is allowed. In the event of arrest of the petitioner, he shall be released on bail by the Investigating Officer subject to the conditions envisaged under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending criminal miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
