2. To be referred to the Reporters or not ?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest ?

Ajay Tewari, J (Oral)

The petitioner seeks grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.146, dated 20.7.2015, registered under Sections 366-A, 363, 120-B of the IPC, at Police Station Zira, District Ferozepur.

Allegations were that 20 years old son of the petitioner enticed away 16 years and 10 months old daughter of the complainant on the pretext of marriage.

Counsel for the petitioner has argued that till date neither the boy nor the girl is traceable. The father of the boy i.e the husband of the petitioner was arrested and despite the fact that he was in jail for two months, the police could not get any information from him. It is a case of elopement and the allegations against the petitioner are not correct.

Learned Addl. AG Punjab has accepted the factual assertions but has stated that the averment that the allegations against the petitioner are incorrect is denied.

Be that as it may, without commenting upon the merits of the case, I do not deem it appropriate to deny the concession of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Resultantly, this petition is allowed and it is directed that in the event of her arrest, the petitioner shall be released on anticipatory bail by the Investigating Officer to his satisfaction subject to the compliance of the provisions as contained in Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
