Versus

State of Punjab and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE INDERJIT SINGH

Present: Mr. D.K.Bhatti, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Mr. Amrinder Singh Klar, AAG, Punjab,
for the respondent(s)-State.

Mr. Saurabh Sharma, Advocate, for respondent No.4.

INDERJIT SINGH, J.

In compliance of order dated 16.12.2014, passed by this Court, report of Registrar (Judicial) has been received and the same is perused.

Registrar is directed to take necessary action as per law for the default committed by the dealing assistant of the Dispatch Branch, who was found at fault.

Petitioners Anil Kumar and Prince have preferred this petition under Section 438 Cr.P.C., seeking anticipatory bail in case FIR No.156 dated 09.10.2014, registered at Police Station Division No.3, Jalandhar, District Jalandhar, under Sections 323, 324, 452, 307, 148 and 149 IPC.

Learned counsel for the petitioners contended that only simple injuries are attributed to petitioners Anil Kumar and Prince and the parties have effected the compromise and the petitioners are going to file the quashing petition on the basis of compromise.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of respondent No.4 has stated that respondent No.4 has no objection if this petition is accepted.

On the other hand, learned State counsel contested this petition.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned State counsel as well as learned counsel for respondent No.4 and have gone through the record.

Only simple injuries are attributed to the petitioners and injury dangerous to life is attributed to co-accused. The petitioners have already joined the investigation and they are not required for custodial interrogation. Compromise has already been effected between the parties. No useful purpose will be served by sending the petitioners to custody.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case and without discussing the facts of the case in minute details and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the present petition is allowed and the order dated 21.11.2014, passed by this Court, granting interim bail to the petitioners is made absolute.
