Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that petitioner absented himself from the trial under Section 138 Cr.P.C., pending before Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Bathinda and thereafter, he was declared Proclaimed Offender. Even thereafter on 5-6 next occassions he remained absent. Petitioner is in habit of filing applications for his exemption from personal appearance. Learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that he has got instructions from his client that he will not repeat such type of conduct in future.

In these circumstances, petition is disposed of with the direction to the petitioner to surrender before the trial Court and move an application for regular bail. The application, if so filed, shall be decided within three working days. However, if trial Court grants the bail to the petitioner it may impose strict conditions to ensure that accused will not move any application for exemption from personal appearance and will appear on each and every date of hearing.
