

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT

CRM M-40289 of 2014

Date of Decision: January 7, 2015

.....Petitioner

Vs.

State of Haryana

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI.

Present:- Mr. Vijay Sangwan, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Arun Kumar, AAG, Haryana.

M.M.S. BEDI, J. (ORAL)

On account of petitioner having absented on November 1, 2012 and having been declared a proclaimed offender w.e.f. March 4, 2013, he has been in custody w.e.f. January 2014 in a case of murder registered in the year 2010.

It has been informed that 33 witnesses out of 39 have already been examined.

I have gone through the police record. The petitioner, as member of unlawful assembly had assaulted deceased Om Parkash.

Though petitioner is not named in the FIR but in view of serious allegations that the deceased had been fired at by the co-accused of the petitioner besides having received injuries at the hands of the members of unlawful assembly, no ground is made out to grant the concession of bail to the petitioner especially when he has remained a proclaimed offender after absenting in the year 2013. The trial is at penultimate stage. Expecting that the trial would be concluded within a period of six months from the next date of hearing, this petition is dismissed with liberty to the petitioner to approach this Court again in case the trial is not concluded within the above said period.
