

IN THE PUNJAB & HARYANA HIGH COURT AT CHANDIGARH245*CRM-M-40378-2014 (O&M)*Date of decision : 09.02.2015

Bhola and others

... Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and another

... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE REKHA MITTALPresent: Mr. Pardeep Rajput, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Ankur Jain, AAG, Punjab.

REKHA MITTAL, J.(ORAL)

The petitioners have prayed for quashing of FIR No.38 dated 13.04.2014, for offence under Sections 323, 308, 148, 149 of the Indian Penal Code (in short "IPC") registered in Police Station Sadar Hoshiarpur, Hoshiarpur on the basis of compromise dated 05.04.2014 effected between the parties.

The parties were directed to appear before the Illaqa Magistrate/trial Court on 16.01.2015 to get their statements recorded with regard to genuineness of compromise.

A report has been submitted by the Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Hoshiarpur, wherein it has been reported that statements of the petitioners No.1 to 6 and respondent No.2 (complainant) have been recorded and the statements made by the parties in the Court reveal that they have voluntarily entered into a compromise with an intention to live in peace and harmony.

Mr.Bhupeswar Singh Yaswal, Advocate has put in appearance on behalf of respondent No.2.

Counsel for the petitioners contends that dispute between the parties has been settled during pendency of investigation. It is further submitted that as the matter has been settled by way of compromise, there is no possibility of the complainant/sole injured to support case of prosecution in case the accused are subject to trial.

Counsel for the State has not disputed correctness of assertions of the petitioners that the matter has been settled by way of compromise between the parties.

I have heard counsel for the parties and perused the case file.

A perusal of allegations in the FIR reveals that the present case squarely falls in the category of cases which can be quashed by the High Court, in exercise of its inherent power under Section 482 of the Code. Keeping in view the authoritative enunciation of law laid down by Hon'ble the Supreme Court of India in Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another, 2012(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 543 and in the light of facts and circumstances of the present case, this Court is of the considered opinion that continuation of criminal proceedings would amount to abuse of process of law and it is expedient in the interest of justice that criminal proceedings are put to an end.

In view of what has been discussed hereinabove, the petition is allowed and FIR No.38 dated 13.04.2014, for offence under Sections 323, 308, 148, 149 IPC registered in Police Station Sadar Hoshiarpur, Hoshiarpur and proceedings emanating therefrom are ordered to be quashed, qua the petitioners.
