It is stated that after the interim bail, the petitioner has surrendered in the jail. A perusal of the FIR shows that the allegations against the petitioner are that he, with a bad intention, waylaid the complainant, stopped her and tried to take her towards sugarcane fields by using force. The petitioner was arrested on 17.9.2014 and is in jail since then.

Without commenting on merits of the case, further detention of the petitioner is considered unnecessary. Therefore, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to released on bail on furnishing personal bonds in the sum of Rs.25,000/- with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court, subject to such conditions as may be imposed.
