

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

Criminal Misc.No.M-41198 of 2015 (O&M)
Date of decision: 11th December, 2015

Kiranpal Kaur

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE INDERJIT SINGH

Present: Mr. R.V.S.Chugh, Advocate, for the petitioner.

INDERJIT SINGH, J.

Petitioner has preferred the instant petition under Section 439 Cr.P.C., seeking regular bail in case FIR No.06 dated 30.01.2015, registered at Police Station Bareta, District Mansa, under Section(s) 306, 34 IPC.

Notice of motion.

On the asking of the Court, Ms. Simsi Dhir Malhotra, DAG, Punjab, has accepted notice on behalf of respondent(s)-State and contested the instant petition. Police record is also available.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned State counsel and have gone through the record.

The FIR in the present case has been registered on 30.01.2015 on the basis of application dated 13.10.2014. As per the allegations, Baljit Singh, son of the complainant was married with petitioner Kiranpal Kaur in 1999 and out of the said wedlock, one son Ranvir Singh, aged about 13 ½ years and daughter Ramandip Kaur were born. As per FIR, the allegations regarding the characterless of the petitioner are levelled. It is also stated in the FIR that she used to mix some narcotic substance in the meals of her husband Baljit Singh (deceased) due to that he used to get up at 9:00 a.m. with great difficulty. There is also allegation that on 15.09.2014, petitioner was abusing Baljit Singh and asking that in case he may die then she will get another man due to which Baljit Singh started taking liquor and he asked the petitioner that she will not go outside from the house and she asked Baljit Singh who is he to stop her. Baljit Singh died on 20.09.2014 by hanging.

The petitioner is in custody since 01.02.2015 and the complainant and the other material witnesses have already been examined. The trial of the case will take long time. No useful purpose will be served by keeping the petitioner in custody.

Therefore, keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the present case and without discussing the facts of the case in minute details and without expressing any opinion on the merit of the case, the present petition is accepted and the petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail on furnishing bail bonds in the sum of ₹ 50,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
