RAJ MOHAN SINGH, J. (Oral)

Prayer in this petition is for quashing of FIR No.365 dated 26.08.2009, registered under Sections 147, 148, 452, 323, 324, 427 IPC, at Police Station Camp Palwal, on the basis of compromise.

This Court, on 27.02.2015 passed the following order:-

“Reply filed on behalf of respondent No.1 in Court is taken on record.

CRM-M No.41346 of 2014

On behalf of the State, it is stated that case is at fag end. Out of the seven witnesses, five witnesses have been examined. Allegations are of causing simple injuries and criminal tress-pass.

Let both the parties put in appearance before the trial Court. The trial Court is directed to record their statements and report to this Court whether the compromise is genuine and without any pressure.

Adjourned to 30.3.2015.”

In pursuance to the aforesaid order, both the parties appeared before the Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Palwal and got their statements recorded in which they have fully endorsed the factum of compromise and stated that the compromise in question is voluntarily executed and is free from all coercion and pressure of any kind.

Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Palwal, vide his report dated 04.03.2015, also endorsed the factum of compromise and opined that the compromise in question is genuine, voluntary and is the outcome of volition and free will of the parties.

This Court is of the opinion that in view of compromise between the parties, chances of conviction of the accused are remote and there is minimal chance of the witnesses coming forward to depose in support of prosecution version. In view of remote chances of conviction, it would be appropriate to exercise discretionary power of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to put an end to the controversy for all times to come. The compromise would facilitate both the parties to live in peace and to maintain public tranquility and offence in question is personal in nature and does not involve any heinous and serious offence of any mental depravity, nor it involves any offence covered under Prevention of Corruption Act. Therefore, when possibility of conviction is remote and bleak, continuation of criminal proceedings would put the accused to oppression and prejudice. In such a situation the exercise of power to quash the proceedings would be in consonance with the provisions of law to meet ends of justice and to prevent unnecessary continuation of proceedings which may ultimately result in some unnecessary vagaries of criminal trial.

The State on notice, however, object to the aforesaid course, but in order to prevent unnecessary continuation of criminal proceedings on the ground that there are bleak chances of conviction in the case, this Court is of the opinion that it would be in fitness of things to quash the proceedings on the basis of compromise.

Resultantly, FIR No.365 dated 26.08.2009, registered under Sections 147, 148, 452, 323, 324, 427 IPC, at Police Station Camp Palwal and all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, are quashed.
