CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI.

M.M.S. BEDI, J. (ORAL)

Since the application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. filed by the petitioner has been treated as complaint requiring the petitioner to produce evidence, it will be open to the petitioner to file a list of witnesses and the list of documents to be relied upon by him.

No case is made out for issuing any directions for registration of FIR in view of the circumstance that the trial Court has already opted to consider the complaint under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. as a complaint under Section 200 Cr.P.C.

The petition is disposed of at this stage with the above said liberty to the petitioner. A direction is issued that the trial Court shall expeditiously take the adjudication of the matter by giving short dates as the petitioner is a senior citizen. It will be open to the complainant to move an application for exemption from personal appearance on account of his age which may be allowed by the trial Court subject to any conditions.
