Rekha Mittal, J.

Through the present petition filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (in short, 'Cr.P.C.'), the petitioner prays for quashing of FIR No. 86 dated 19.07.2014 for offence punishable under Section 498-A of the Indian Penal Code (in short, 'IPC') registered in Police Station Women, District Ludhiana and proceedings emanating therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 25.11.2014 (Annexure P-2) arrived at between the parties.

Vide order dated 04.12.2014, the parties were directed to appear before the trial Court to get their statements recorded with regard to genuineness of compromise.

Pursuant thereto, a report has been submitted by Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Ludhiana wherein it has been reported that statements of the parties have been recorded and that they have voluntarily compromised the matter.

Counsel for the State does not dispute genuineness of the compromise in view of the report of trial Court.

A perusal of allegations in the FIR reveals that the present case squarely falls in that category of cases which can be quashed by the High Court, in exercise of its inherent power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. Keeping in view the authoritative enunciation of law laid down by Hon'ble the Supreme Court in 'Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another', 2012(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 543 and in the light of facts and circumstances of the present case, this Court is of the considered opinion that continuation of criminal proceedings would amount to abuse of process of law and it is expedient in the interest of justice that criminal proceedings are put to an end.

In this view of the matter, the petition is allowed and FIR No. 86 dated 19.07.2014 for offence punishable under Section 498-A IPC registered in Police Station Women, District Ludhiana and proceedings emanating therefrom stand quashed qua the petitioner.
