..Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

..Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE DAYA CHAUDHARY

- 1. Whether reporters of local newspapers may be allowed to see judgment?
- 2. To be referred to reporters or not?
- 3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

Present: Mr. Saurabh Dalal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Munish Sharma, A.A.G., Haryana
for the respondent – State.

Daya Chaudhary, J. (Oral)

The present petition has been filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C. on behalf of the petitioner, namely, Amit @ Bholu, for grant of regular bail in case FIR No.246 dated 06.09.2012, under Sections 148, 149, 302, 323, 341 and 216 of Indian Penal Code registered at Police Station Kalanaur, District Rohtak.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in custody for the last more than 2 years and 5 months. Total 24 accused persons were named in the FIR but the challan was presented only against 17 persons and 7 persons were kept in column

No.2. Subsequently, an application was also moved under Section 319 Cr.P.C. for summoning of three persons, which was allowed and said persons have been released on anticipatory bail. Learned counsel for the petitioner also submits that co-accused of the petitioner, namely, Sonu and Sanjay, who are similarly situated, have been released on regular bail and the trial will take long time in conclusion as after allowing the application under Section 319 Cr.P.C., it would be a case of de novo trial.

Learned State counsel has not disputed the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner regarding de novo trial as well as allowing the application under Section 319 Cr.P.C.

In view of the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner and also the fact that the petitioner is behind the bars for the last more than 2 years and 5 months; even a single witness has not been examined so far after allowing application under Section 319 Cr.P.C, it would be a case of de novo trial, which may take long time in conclusion, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner (Amit @ Bholu) is directed to be released on regular bail subject to furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court or any other terms and conditions, if deemed necessary, by the trial Court.
