PARAMJEET SINGH, J. (ORAL)

This petition has been filed by the petitioners under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, seeking quashing of case FIR No.63 dated 25.12.2013 registered under Sections 406/498-A of IPC registered at Police Station Samalsar, District Moga, along with all consequential proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise between the parties.

On 10.12.2014 notice of motion was issued and parties were directed to appear before the trial Court on 20.12.2014 to get their statements recorded with regard to compromise/settlement and trial Court was directed to send the report.

In pursuance of order dated 10.12.2014, learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, has submitted his report dated 05.01.2015, which indicates that parties appeared before him and got recorded their respective statements with regard to validity of compromise. As per the report, compromise arrived at between the parties is genuine and without any pressure or coercion from any corner. Now no dispute survives between the parties.

Consequently, in view of the compromise and keeping in view the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Madan Mohan Abbot v. State of Punjab, 2008(2) RCR (Criminal) 429, Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another, 2012(4) RCR (Criminal) 543, Narinder Singh and others v. State of Punjab and another, 2014(2) RCR (Criminal) 482 and Full Bench judgment of this Court in the case of Kulwinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab and another, 2007(3) RCR (Crl.) 1052, no useful purpose would be served in prolonging the litigation, especially when this case does not fall within the category of exceptional cases where this Court should not exercise its inherent jurisdictional power to quash the criminal proceedings, as held in Gian Singh's case (supra). In the facts and circumstances of this case it would be unfair or contrary to the interest of justice to continue with the criminal proceedings or continuation of the criminal proceedings would amount to abuse of process of law despite settlement and compromise between the victim and wrongdoer and to secure the ends of justice, therefore, it is appropriate that criminal case is put to an end.

The present petition is allowed. FIR No..63 dated 25.12.2013 registered under Sections 406/498-A of IPC registered at Police Station Samalsar, District Moga along with all consequential proceedings arising out of it, on the basis of compromise, is quashed.

It is, however, made clear that if the proceedings already stand concluded and conviction recorded in the present case, this order shall be treated non est and, thus, will have no bearing on the conviction and sentence order.
