trial will take time, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner behind the bar. Accordingly, the petition is allowed and petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing personal bonds in the sum of Rs. 50000/- with one surety of like amount to the satisfaction of trial Court subject to following conditions:-

(i) that the petitioner will not directly or indirectly contact any witness acquainted with the facts of the case ;
(ii) that the petitioner will not give any inducement, threat and promise to any witness ;
(iii) that the petitioner will not commit any crime of similar nature and in case it is found that the petitioner has committed any crime of similar nature, then the trial Court is competent to cancel this bail order and cancel the bail ;
(iv) that the petitioner will not leave the country without prior permission of Court and will surrender his passport before the trial Court. The same will be returned to the petitioner on conclusion of the trial. In case, there is no passport issued to the petitioner, he shall file his affidavit to this effect.

Petition is accordingly disposed of.
