Vs.

State of Punjab and another

.....Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present : Mr. Onkar Singh, Advocate for the petitioner.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK J. (ORAL)

Feeling aggrieved against the alleged inaction on the part of the respondent authorities, petitioner has approached this Court by way of instant petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C, seeking appropriate directions.

Learned counsel for the petitioner, at the very outset, fairly states that before approaching this Court by way of present petition, petitioner has not approached the Senior Superintendent of Police, Hoshiarpur. He further submits that given an opportunity, petitioner shall approach the Senior Superintendent of Police, Hoshiarpur, by moving an appropriate representation within a period of two weeks from today and he may be directed to consider and decide the same, within reasonable time.

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties, instant petition is disposed of with a direction to the Senior Superintendent of Police, Hoshiarpur, that if the petitioner approaches him by moving an appropriate representation within a period of two weeks from today, he shall consider and decide the same, at an early date by passing an appropriate order thereon, strictly in accordance with law, but in any case within a period of three weeks from the date of receipt of representation from the petitioner.

With the abovesaid observations made and directions issued, present petition stands disposed of.
