On instructions from ASI Kehar Singh, learned State counsel informs that challan has already been presented.

In view of the fact that the challan having been presented, it will not be feasible for the Court to determine the culpability of the petitioner without appraisal of the material available on the record, this petition is disposed of at this stage with liberty to the petitioner to raise all the pleas and seek discharge at the time of framing of charges, expecting that all the pleas raised by the petitioner will be considered by the trial Court by passing a speaking order.
