- i. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
- ii. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
- iii. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This petition has been filed for quashing the order of proclamation dated 02.01.2014.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that originally the petitioner was not involved by the police and was later summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C. He was declared a proclaimed offender but no service had been effected upon him. Learned AAG, on instructions from, HC Rajinder Pal Singh, has accepted the fact that service was not effected upon him. Learned counsel for the petitioner further states that actually in this case the prosecutrix did not appear at all to give evidence and that resulted in acquittal of all the other co-accused. This fact has also been accepted by learned AAG.

In the circumstances the petition is allowed and the impugned order is set aside. Let the petitioner appear before the trial Court on the date fixed. The trial Court shall release him on bail to its satisfaction.

Since the main case has been decided, the Criminal Misc.Application, if any also stands disposed of.
