Present: Mr.R.K.Dadwal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. K.D.Sachdeva, Addl. A.G., Punjab.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

Petitioner seeks bail pending trial in FIR No.105 dated 11.10.2014 registered under Sections 307, 308, 323, 324 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code at Police Station, Haryana, District Hoshiarpur.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is inside the jail for the last more than 9 months. Only two prosecution witnesses have been examined and trial will take long time. He further submits that involvement of the petitioner in the offence in question would be a moot point. He prays for allowing the present petition.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the State, on instructions from HC Mohan Singh, Police Station, Haryana, submits that petitioner is the only accused. He caused more than two grievous injuries on the vital parts of the injured-complainant which were found dangerous to life. He further submits that since the next date of hearing before the learned trial Court is 29.7.2015, trial will not take long time. He prays for dismissal of the petition.

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner at considerable length, after careful perusal of the record of the case and giving thoughtful consideration to the contentions raised, this Court is of the considered opinion that in the given fact situation of the instant case, petitioner has not been found entitled for bail pending trial. It is so said because the petitioner being the only accused and having caused grievous injuries on the vital parts of the body of injured, he is not entitled for concession of bail pending trial.

In view of the above and without commenting anything further on merits at this stage, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties, no case for bail pending trial is made out.

Dismissed.
