Ajay Tewari, J. (Oral)

This petition been filed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.923 dated 11.12.2014, registered under Sections 384, 506, IPC at Police Station City Jind, District Jind during the pendency of the trial.

On 22.12.2014, the following order was passed by this Court:-

“Learned counsel has argued that the petitioner has been accused of threatening his uncle that he would kidnap his cousin and actually this FIR has been lodged as a result of family dispute.

Notice of motion.

On the asking of the Court, Mr.Anmol Malik, A.A.G., Haryana accepts notice on behalf of the respondent.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has supplied a copy of the petitioner to the learned AAG today in Court itself.

Adjourned to 06.02.2015.

In the meantime, arrest of the petitioner shall remain stayed.”

Learned State counsel has argued that the petitioner has been called up by the police on the statement made by the complainant wherein extortion or threat of kidnaping the children of the complainant had been extended by the petitioner. Learned State counsel has also accepted the factual statement.

There is no other allegation against the petitioner except the bald statement made by the complainant.

In view of the circumstances, I do not deem it appropriate to deny the benefit of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that the petitioner has joined the investigation. So, Investigating officer is directed to release the petitioner on anticipatory bail subject to the conditions of Section 438 (2) Cr.P.C. .

Application stands disposed of.
