NAVITA SINGH, J. (ORAL)

The applications filed by the complainant under Section 172 and 173 (8) of the Code of Criminal Procedure in trial Court are pending.

On one application, the accused had taken time to file reply while on the other, the complainant is seeking time to file relevant documents. The matter is now fixed before the trial Court on 16.05.2015.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in custody since 27.06.2014 and the trial is stalled because of the applications moved by the complainant.

It is directed that the complainant shall file whatever documents she desires to file on the next date and it is submitted that reply is not to be filed for the application under Section 172 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Trial Court to decide the applications within the month of May, 2015 and to proceed with the trial. No ground for releasing the petitioner on bail at this stage is made out, as he is named in the FIR and the son of the complainant was killed. The trial Court to make effort to proceed with the trial by giving short adjournments.

If evidence is not led by the prosecution, the petitioner may move the Court again for bail.

With the above observations, the petition is dismissed.
