..... Respondent.

NAVITA SINGH, J. (ORAL)

The petitioner was summoned as an additional accused along with Ranbir son of Ganga Dutt. Both of them were found innocent during investigation, but were later on summoned under Section 319 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Ranbir was granted bail by this Court on 24.10.2014, whereas the petitioner is continuing in custody since 14.09.2014. The allegations against him were that he gave a blow with a knife on the head of the deceased, but the alleged weapon of offence was not recovered. Regarding Ranbir, the allegation was that he had given a blow on the abdomen of the deceased with a lathi, but such no injury was found on the body of the deceased at the time of post mortem.

So far only one prosecution witness has been examined out of a list of 22.

In view of the facts given above, it is felt that the petitioner deserves the concession of bail, especially when co-accused Ranbir, who was similarly placed, has already been granted concession of bail.

In view of the above, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to his furnishing bail bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court.

Nothing given above to be taken as an expression on the merits of the case.
