3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

Paramjeet Singh, J. (Oral)

Instant petition under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure has been filed for grant of concession of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.100, dated 11.08.2014 under Sections 307, 148, 149, IPC and 25, 27 of the Arms Act, registered at Police Station, Badhani Kalan, District Moga.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner is behind bars since 02.09.2014. However, learned State counsel after seeking instructions from HC-Iqbal Singh, states that the petitioner is behind bars since 08.09.2014. Be that as it may, it does not make any difference.

It is further contended by learned counsel for the petitioner that no injury has been attributed to the petitioner and challan has been presented against him.

Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that trial would not be concluded in near future, petitioner can be granted concession of bail.

Without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case and keeping in view the custody period of the petitioner and the fact that no injury has been attributed to the petitioner, the petition is allowed and petitioner is ordered to be released on bail, on his furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds, to the satisfaction of Trial Court/Duty Magistrate, Moga.
