The allegations against the petitioner are that he entered into the house of Vasudev on 16.1.2014 at about 11:00 P.M. alongwith 5-6 other boys. They were carrying lathis. They demanded key of the box. The wife of complainant was awakened. One of the boy pressed her neck and the said boy was pushed by the complainant. They also stole Rs. 4000/- and one pair of pajeb and one silver chain from the house of the complainant. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that petitioner was arrested on 26.2.2014 and he is in custody since then. Now challan has been presented. However, it is not denied that in this case complainant-injured has not been examined. The petitioner is also involved in another case of similar nature.

In these circumstances, at this stage there is no ground to grant regular bail. However, the petitioner shall be at liberty to approach the appropriate Court after the examination of complainant-injured.

Dismissed at this stage.
