CRM-M-4659 of 2015

The primary allegations of the prosecution in this anticipatory bail application of the petitioners couple are that petitioner-wife was earlier running a Gas Agency under the name and style of Gagan Gas Agency in which the complainant was subsequently incorporated as a partner on payment of ₹25 lacs and subsequent on discovery by the complainant that under the conditions of agreement no such change of ownership/introduction of new partnership could be undertaken.

The contentions of the learned counsel for the petitioners that the complainant and the petitioner had been successfully running the agency for more than one and a half years and after a money dispute the present case has been got registered as a pressure tactics. Though, these arguments are sought to be opposed on behalf of the State, however, the mere fact that as per the principle of buyer beware the complainant ought to be vigilant enough and nothing transpires of any fraudulent representation or cheating and apparent condition of the Gas Company M/s Prachi Gas Bottling Pvt. Ltd putting a rider on such a transfer/partnership has nothing to do with the criminal intent.

In view of the same since the petitioner No.1 Rajwinder Kaur has since joined the investigations and that nothing is to be recovered even from the petitioner No.2 Gursewak Singh and their joining investigation will suffice the purpose, thus, ad interim orders dated 12.2.2015 qua petitioner No.1 Rajwinder Kaur are made absolute and in the event of petitioner No.2 Gursewak Singh putting in appearance before the Investigating Officer within fifteen days from today, he be admitted to bail to the satisfaction of the I.O. and would comply the conditions as envisaged under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.

Petition stands disposed off accordingly.
