- i. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
- ii. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
- iii. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This is an application for regular bail filed in case bearing FIR No. 32 dated 24.03.2014, under Sections 302, 307, 324, 148, 149 IPC, registered at Police Station Sadar Kapurthala, District Kapurthala.

Learned counsel has argued that the petitioner was not attributed any injury to the deceased and was attributed an injury due to which Section 307 IPC has been attracted; he has been in custody since 30.03.2014 and an application under Section 319 Cr.P.C. has been moved which would result in further delay of the trial. Learned Addl.AG, on instructions from SI Joginder Singh, has accepted these factual assertions.

Learned counsel for the complainant has, however, argued that even this petitioner should not be released on bail because he was part of a mob and Section 149 IPC has been invoked.

Be that is it may, without commenting on the merits of the case and keeping in view of the period of incarceration already suffered by the petitioner, I do not deem it appropriate to deny him the concession of bail. Let him be released on bail to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate.

Petition stands disposed of.

Since the main case has been decided, the Criminal Misc.Application, if any also stands disposed of.
