CRM-M No.5197 of 2015

Date of Decision:20.02.2015

Dhoni Singh @ Harpreet Singh

.....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MEHINDER SINGH SULLAR.

Present: Mr.Amandeep Singh Cheema, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr.Jaspreet Singh Sekhon, Assistant Advocate General, Punjab, for the respondent-State.

MEHINDER SINGH SULLAR, J.(oral)

The petitioner has preferred the instant petition for the grant of concession of regular bail, in a case registered against him along with his other main co-accused Veera Singh, vide FIR No.74 dated 24.10.2014, on accusation of having committed the offences punishable under Sections 307, 326 and 34 IPC, by the police of Police Station Nandgarh, District Bathinda.

2. Notice of the petition was issued to the State.

3. After hearing the learned counsel for the parties, going through the record with their valuable assistance and deep consideration of the entire matter, to my mind, the present petition for regular bail deserves to be accepted in this context.

4. What cannot possibly be disputed here is that, neither any specific role nor any particular injury is attributed to the petitioner in the FIR, except that he abused the son of complainant-Dev Singh. All the main allegations of causing injury are assigned to main accused Veera Singh(non-petitioner).

5. Moreover, the petitioner was arrested in this case on 30.11.2014. Since then he is in judicial custody and no useful purpose would be served to further detain him in jail. There is no history of his previous involvement in any other criminal case. Since, not even a single witness has yet been examined by the prosecution, so, the conclusion of trial will naturally take a long time.

6. In the light of aforesaid reasons, taking into consideration the peculiar facts & the special circumstances, emanating from the record, as discussed here-in-above and without commenting further anything on merits, lest it may prejudice the case of either side during the course of trial of the main case, the instant petition for regular bail is hereby accepted. The petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing adequate bail bonds and surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court.

Needless to mention that, nothing observed here-in-above, would reflect, on merits in the trial of the main case, in any manner, as the same has been so recorded for a limited purpose of deciding the present petition for regular bail.
