RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

Petitioners seek pre-arrest bail in FIR No.317 dated 19.11.2014 registered under Sections 420, 468, 471 and 120-B of the Indian Penal Code at Police Station Civil Lines, Kaithal.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that in compliance of the order dated 25.2.2015 passed by this Court, petitioners have joined the investigation and they are no more required for any further investigation. He prays for allowing the present petition.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the State, on instructions from ASI Kitab Singh, Police Station, Civil Lines Kaithal, submits that although the complainant who was none-else but the wife of petitioner No.1 has amicably settled the matter with the petitioner-husband, yet petitioner No.1 is not entitled for anticipatory bail because allegations against him were direct and serious. He prays for dismissal of the petition.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties at considerable length and after careful perusal of record of the case, this Court is of the considered opinion that petitioners deserve concession of anticipatory bail. It is so said, because the petitioners have joined the investigation in compliance of the orders passed by this Court. Nothing more is to be recovered from the petitioners and they are no more required for the purpose of further investigation.

In view of the totality of facts and circumstances of the case noted hereinabove and without commenting any further, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties, the order dated 25.2.2015 passed by this Court is hereby made absolute, however, subject to the conditions envisaged under Section 438 (2) Cr.P.C.

Disposed of, accordingly.
