Date of Decision : 08.01.2015

Pooja @ Kirana Rani and another

..... Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and others

..... Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY TEWARI

Present : Mr. H.S. Thiara, Advocate for the petitioners.

1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
2. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

Prayer in the present petition filed under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. is for issuance of a direction to the official respondents to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners and not to harass them at the instance of respondent Nos.4 to 7.

The petitioners had got married against the wishes of their parents on 13.01.2012. They are stated to be major. Thereafter from the Wedlock they were blessed with a son who is 1 month and 2 months old.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that now after two years of their marriage the respondents No.4 to 7 made a false complaint to the police and are harassing them. Learned counsel has further argued that in this connection the petitioners have also moved representation (Annexure P-4) to the respondent No.2 and at this stage he would be satisfied if a direction is given to respondent No.2 to look into the matter and decide their representation within any reasonable time.

I find this to be a fair request. The respondent No.2-the Senior Superintendent of Police, Sangrur is directed to look into the matter/representation (Annexure P-4) and take whatever action he deems necessary as per law.

Petition stands disposed of in the above terms.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending criminal miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
