FATEH DEEP SINGH, J. (ORAL)

On the intervention of the Court, Lt. Col. Satish Chander along with his counsel Mr.Aman Pal, Advocate as well as Smt. Sushila Kumari along with her counsel Mr.Babbar Bhan, Advocate, who are present in Court, have resolved their dispute whereby Lt. Col. Satish Chander undertakes to pay ₹21,000 per month w.e.f. today as maintenance which shall be credited to the bank account of Smt.Sushila Kumari every month through the salary/pension account of Lt. Col. Satish Chander for which he would issue necessary instructions to the authority concerned for regularly crediting the amount. Lt. Col. Satish Chander further undertakes that after every five years w.e.f. today he will increase the amount of maintenance by ₹2,000 automatically. Both the parties undertake that they shall withdraw all the litigation pending against each other except the divorce petition and shall not initiate any other fresh litigation against each other arising out of this matrimonial dispute. It has been further agreed that out of the total arrears amounting to ₹9,21,000 till August, 2015, an amount of ₹3,56,000 which is still unpaid shall be paid by Lt. Col. Satish Chander to Smt.Sushila Kumari within a period of six months in equal installments. The parties shall be bound by this settlement.

In the light of statements made before the Court by both the sides, the present petitions stand disposed off.
