3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This petition has been filed under Section 438 Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in case F.I.R. No.396 dated 01.08.2014 registered under Sections 148, 149, 323, 506, 427 IPC and 302 IPC (added later on) at Police Station City Palwal.

The allegations were that the petitioner first attacked the complainant and gave him injuries. The complainant somehow managed to escape and reached home and when his father and his brother were taking him for treatment he was again attacked by the petitioner and his companions and on this occasion his father died due to injuries caused by the co-accused of the petitioner. The petitioner is alleged to have put a pistol to the head of the complainant to prevent him from trying to save his father.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that no overt role has been attributed to the petitioner in causing injuries.

Be that as it may, the fact that two attacks were made and the brutality with which the father of the petitioner was killed; in my considered opinion, disentitles the petitioner for the grant of concession of anticipatory bail.

Petition is dismissed.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending criminal miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
