

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

Criminal Misc.No.M-5992 of 2015 (O&M)

Date of decision: 26th February, 2015

Rajinder Pal Singh

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE INDERJIT SINGH

Present: Mr. Rajesh Kumar Girdhar, Advocate, for the petitioner.

INDERJIT SINGH, J.

Petitioner has preferred the instant petition under Section 438 Cr.P.C., seeking anticipatory bail in case FIR No.144 dated 24.09.2014, registered at Police Station City Jalalabad, District Fazilka, under Sections 420, 465, 467, 468, 471, 120-B, 511 IPC.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contended that the first anticipatory bail application has been dismissed by this Court on merit. He further contended that the co-accused Surjit Singh has already been granted bail in this case. Learned counsel for the petitioner also contended that as per prosecution version, the only allegation against the petitioner is that he has made an attempt to raise loan from the bank in the name of other person. Therefore, he contended that the petitioner on parity should be granted bail.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and have gone through the record.

From the record, I find that this is second petition for anticipatory bail and there is no question of parity of the petitioner with co-accused Surjit Singh. The petitioner has prepared the false identity card of the father of complainant and that has been used while making attempt to raise loan, by impersonation, on the land of complainant. The petitioner in no way can be held at par with co-accused Surjit Singh.

Therefore, finding no merit in the present petition, the same is dismissed.
