CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-6115 of 2015

Date of Decision: March 13, 2015

Manpreet Singh @ Taani

....Petitioner

VS

State of Punjab

....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA

Present: Mr. S.P.S Sidhu, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Mikhail Kad, AAG. Punjab

TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA, J. (Oral)

This order shall dispose of the present petition filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C. seeking benefit of regular bail to the petitioner in FIR No.160 dated 11.06.2013, registered under Sections 302, 323 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code, registered at Police Station City Ferozepur, District Ferozepur.

Counsel for the parties have been heard.

The deceased in the present case is Ashok Kumar. As per the version of complainant Loveleen son of deceased Ashok Kumar, three persons had allegedly given blows on the head of the deceased, i.e. co-accused Kamal with an iron rod, the present petitioner also with an iron rod and Sunil Kumar @ Goru with a base-bat.

It has gone un-controverted that during the course of investigation, present petitioner was not found to be present at the time of occurrence and the iron blow was attributed to main accused Kamal. Even the iron rod was stated to have been recovered from Kamal.

The petitioner thereafter has been summoned as an additional accused by virtue of an application having been allowed under Section 319 Cr.P.C.

It has also gone un-controverted that co-accused Sunil Kumar @ Goru who had also been attributed a blow on the head of the deceased Ashok Kumar, has been granted benefit of bail. The trial is stated to be at the very initial stage. The petitioner has been in custody since 28.10.2014.

In the totality of the circumstances and without making any observations on merits, the petition is allowed.

Bail to the satisfaction of the trial Court.
