

In the High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh

CRM M-6514 of 2015
Date of Decision: April 28, 2015

Nirmal Singh

... Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and another

... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PARAMJEET SINGH

Present: Mr. Ashok Giri, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Paramjeet Singh, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner is a proclaimed offender, so he wants to withdraw the instant petition. However, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks liberty that as and when the petitioner comes to India, he will surrender before the Court.

Dismissed as withdrawn, as prayed for. On coming to India, the petitioner will be at liberty to file a quashing petition in view of the alleged compromise between the parties.
