

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

Crl.Misc.No.M-6575 of 2015

Date of decision : 10.3.2015

Ranjit Singh

....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER

....

Present : Dr.Anmol Rattan Sidhu, Sr.Advocate with Mr. Pratham Sethi, Advocate for the petitioner.

MAHESH GROVER, J.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner is willing to submit himself to the process of law. In view of the above, he does not wish to press the prayer made in the petition but confines the same to the limited extent that his regular bail application in the event of one being moved before the learned trial court be considered and decided expeditiously considering the fact that in the police inquiry he has been exonerated.

After hearing the learned counsel for the petitioner, I, while accepting the prayer of the petitioner, direct him to submit himself to the process of law on 16.3.2015 (the date stated to be fixed before the trial court) and make a prayer for regular bail. In such eventuality the learned trial court would consider the prayer for bail and dispose it of in accordance with law by taking into consideration the totality of the circumstances. The needful shall be done by the learned trial court as expeditiously as possible but not later than two days from the date of filing of such application.

Disposed of.
