SUKHDEEP KAUR V/S STATE OF PUNJAB & ANR.

Present: Mr. H.S. Batth, Advocate, for the petitioner(s).

Ms. Rajni Gupta, Addl.A.G., Punjab.

CRM-26128-2014

Learned State counsel submits that costs have already been deposited and referred to affidavit of ASI Charanjit Singh dated 09.11.2015. Para 3 thereof reads as under:-

“That the deponent had been pursuing the present petition on behalf of State of Punjab for the last more than one year and on 12.08.2014 the deponent had appeared before the Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court at Chandigarh alongwith police file in the present petition on behalf of respondent i.e. State of Punjab and due to slip away from the mind/inadvetence the deponent had wrongly stated before this Hon'ble court that the charge in this case has been framed.”

The deponent has also tendered unconditional apology for the omission/mistake committed by him.

No further action is necessary.

CRM-M-7419-2012

Mr. Batth, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he needs more time to address arguments.

To come up on 04.02.2016.

It is, however, directed that proceedings before the trial court would continue, however, final order be not passed.
