1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment ?
2. To be referred to the Reporters or not ?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

RAJ MOHAN SINGH, J.

Learned counsel for the petitioner seeks grant of regular bail in case bearing FIR No.76 dated 11.08.2014 registered under Sections 307, 324, 323, 34 IPC Police Station, Jaito District, Faridkot. Learned counsel states that the FIR was registered on the statement of Guljar Singh. The petitioner is attributed with gandasa injury on biceps of right arm of Guljar Singh which is ultimately found to be simple injury. Petitioner did not cause any injury to Ranjeet Singh, whose injury ultimately attracted applicability of Section 307 IPC. The petitioner is in custody since 18.08.2014. Challan has already been presented but no prosecution witness has been examined so far. However, the contention of the petitioner has been refuted by learned DAG, Punjab by arguing that petitioner is involved in heinous crime.

Heard.

Since the petitioner is attributed with a simple injury and he is in custody since 18.08.2014. Trial would take some time to reach at culmination, therefore, at this stage without adverting to the merits of the case, this Court feels just and expedient to grant regular bail to the petitioner during the pendency of trial. Petitioner is granted regular bail subject to his furnishing bail bonds and surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court.

Disposed of.
