

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM No. M-6807 of 2014 (O&M)

Date of decision: 27.01.2015

Ramesh Kumar and others

....Petitioners

V/s.

State of Punjab and another

....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI.

Present: Mr. Veneet Sharma, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. C.S. Brar, DAG, Punjab.

M.M.S. BEDI, J. (Oral)

Quashing of FIR No.90 dated 26.08.2006 under Sections 325, 324, 323, 34 IPC registered at Police Station Islamabad, District Amritsar and the criminal proceedings emanating therefrom has been prayed on the basis of compromise after conviction order having been passed.

In cross version case also, the matter has been compromised. A cross version criminal complaint arising out of same occurrence has been quashed on the basis of compromise by this Court between the same parties in CRM-M-6557 of 2014 decided on 05.09.2014.

In the present case, the FIR was registered at the instance of Roop Lal-respondent No. 2 alleging that he was attacked by the petitioners. Both the parties have made their statements before the Additional Sessions Judge, Amritsar that the matter has been compromised voluntarily.

The cross version was permitted to be compromised by following the judgment of Sube Singh V/s. State of Haryana, 2013 (4) RCR (W) (P&H) (D.B.) 102. Following the aforesaid judgment and that of Kulwinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab and another 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, I do not find any reason not to permit the compounding of offence in this case.

The petition is allowed. The matter having been compromised, the aforesaid FIR and all the criminal proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed and the order of conviction is hereby set aside. However, the petitioners are directed to deposit a total sum of Rs.10,000/- with Punjab Police Welfare Fund, Sector-9, Chandigarh within a period of one month. The FIR and all the criminal proceedings are quashed as compounded subject to above said condition.
