Versus

State of Punjab and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JITENDRA CHAUHAN

Present: Mr. K.S. Kahlon, Advocate for the petitioner.

JITENDRA CHAUHAN, J.

The present petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, (for short, 'the Cr.P.C.') is for quashing of FIR No.159 dated 31.07.2013, registered under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471, 120-B of the Indian Penal Code (for short, 'the IPC'), at Police Station City Batala, and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom.

The learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner is a household lady. The only role ascribed to her is that the money was handed over to the co-accused in her presence. He refers to Annexure P-2, and states that initially, the matter had been compromised, however, the same was not honoured by the complainant. The petitioner was exonerated in the inquiry conducted by the investigation officer.

Heard.

On the opinion of the District Attorney Legal, the challan has been presented against the petitioner, wherein, it has been stated that prima facie case under Sections 120-B, 420, 467, 468, 471 IPC is made out against the petitioner and one Piyush Sharma and they have been wrongly declared as innocent. The trial Court is seized of the matter. The petitioner is at liberty to take up all the pleas before the trial Court at appropriate stage.

In this view of the matter, the present petition is hereby dismissed.
