Sonia Bajaj

.....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MEHINDER SINGH SULLAR.

Present: Mr.M.S.Virdi, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr.Jaspreet Singh Sekhon, Assistant Advocate General,
Punjab, for the respondent-State.

MEHINDER SINGH SULLAR, J.(oral)

The petitioner has preferred the instant petition for the grant of concession of anticipatory bail in a case registered against her along with her other co-accused, vide FIR No.259 dated 09.09.2010, on accusation of having committed the offences punishable under Sections 380, 448 and 511 IPC, by the police of Police Station Zirakpur, District SAS Nagar, Mohali.

2. Notice of the petition was issued to the State.

3. After hearing the learned counsel for the parties, going through the record with their valuable assistance and considering the entire matter deeply, to my mind, the present petition for anticipatory bail deserves to be accepted in this context.

4. During the course of preliminary hearing, the following order was passed on January 09, 2015 by this Court:-

“Learned counsel, inter alia, contended that the petitioner was earlier granted the concession of regular bail and she was attending the proceedings regularly. On 08.05.2014, since she could not appear on account of death of her cousin brother, so, the trial Court has issued non-bailable warrants against her, without any cogent reasons.

Heard.

Notice of motion be issued to the respondent, returnable for 29.01.2015.

Meanwhile, the petitioner is directed to appear/surrender before the next date of hearing and the trial Court would admit her to interim (provisional) bail, on her filing a specific affidavit that she will regularly attend the proceedings in the trial Court in future and on furnishing adequate bail and surety bonds to its satisfaction.”

5. At the very outset, learned counsel has placed on record certified copy of the order dated 17.01.2015, which would reveal that the petitioner has already surrendered/appeared and the bail bonds & surety bonds furnished by her, in pursuance of the pointed order of this Court, were accepted and attested by the trial Court.

6. In the light of aforesaid reasons and taking into consideration the peculiar facts & the special circumstances, emanating from the record, as discussed here-in-above, the instant petition for anticipatory bail is accepted. The interim(provisional) bail already granted to the petitioner, by means of indicated order of this Court, is hereby made absolute.
